SANDBOX SESSIONS
CREATIVE RESIDENCY @ cSPACE

Are you a writer, illustrator, filmmaker, or creative working on a passion project that needs space to breathe? Sandbox Sessions is a creative residency program offering free co-working space for up to four weeks at cSPACE Marda Loop's creative coworking hub, The Sandbox.

This pilot program removes barriers to workspace access for independent creatives, giving you the time, tools, and community to move your work forward.

1 WHO IS IT FOR?

We're looking for Calgary-based creatives who would benefit from focused desk time in a quiet, supportive space. This program is best suited for digital or paper-based work.
- Writers (fiction, non-fiction, screenwriters, playwrights)
- Illustrators or comic artists
- Filmmakers, editors, content creators
- Other creatives needing uninterrupted workspace to build their project

Commitment:
We're looking for artists who are not only seeking dedicated work time but who are also excited to be part of a creative community. Successful residency applicants are encouraged to be present in the space regularly and to engage with others whether through informal conversation, sharing ideas, or simply being part of the day-to-day energy of the space.

Please note: this space is a quiet co-working office set-up. It is not suitable for practices requiring ventilation, large equipment, or immediate access to running water. It is best suited for digital or paper-based work.

2 WHAT'S INCLUDED?

- 24/7 access to a dedicated desk at Sandbox for four weeks
- Access to Wi-Fi, kitchen, and shared amenities
- Opportunities to connect with other artists and creative professionals
- A feature on the cSPACE blog or newsletter
- Optional presentation or showcase of your work
- Social media visibility and platform support from cSPACE
